

South Kitsap Business Networking (SKBN) Active Membership

Mission Statement:

South Kitsap Business Networking is a group of Business Professionals who have joined together since 1996 to provide mutual support of local business to foster economic growth. We will promote and use the goods and/or services of all members whenever possible. The South Kitsap Business Networking is proud to recommend our members as the best in their respective fields. The Members of this network ascribe to the highest levels of Business Ethics, Professional Excellence, Community Leadership and Customer Care.

Benefits of Active Membership to SKBN

Listings on SKBN Website that includes:

- An associate member listing with all contact information for your business (name, business name, address, phone numbers, website address, email address and photo)
- A service directory listing so site visitors can find you by the service you provide
- Interactive mail list and email discussions

Opportunity to:

- Submit articles and news about your business or industry to the website and the South Kitsap Business News.
- Submit a short biography about yourself and your business.
- Receive and give referrals from other members.
- Share materials and information about your business with other members
- Share in cooperative marketing opportunities and promotions
- Gain information about the South Kitsap Business community.
- The chance to serve as an officer of SKBN.
- Voting privileges
- The chance to interact with other active SKBN members by attending meetings

Membership Dues and Costs: $25 a quarter (costs of optional marketing and promotions may be additional) _

SKBN has a non-compete agreement between our members. If a current SKBN member has a business like yours, they are filling the spot for that type of business. It is up to the member whether or not a competing business will be able to join as an active member. If you are accepted for membership, your dues assessed by the Treasurer and a bill delivered. If the quarter is underway, the dues will be prorated.

To apply, fill out a SKBN Membership Application and mail to:

SKBN (South Kitsap Business Networking)
P.O. Box 2398
Port Orchard, WA 98366